

Name: The 30% Club UCC Executive MBA Scholarship

Purpose: Cork University Business School in association with the 30% Club, has established this scholarship to help women in taking on leadership roles within companies and organisations.

The 30% Club is a collaborative business-led effort aiming towards 30% female representation in senior management by 2020.

Value: The scholarship consists of 100% of tuition fees for the UCC Executive MBA 2019/20 programme for one successful female applicant.

Criteria: To be considered for the scholarship the female applicant must meet the entry threshold and other requirements for the UCC Executive MBA (course code CKL11) and must make an application to the UCC Executive MBA via the Postgraduate Applications Centre, by the closing date of 31 October 2018. Postgraduate Applications Centre (PAC).

To be considered for the scholarship the female applicant must have received an offer and accepted a place on the UCC Executive MBA.

Apply: The female applicant must also submit an application to the UCC Executive MBA Academic Director. This application must include a short personal statement (of no more than 1000 words) identifying (i) the reasons why the applicant would benefit from participation in the UCC Executive MBA with specific reference to the scholarship; (ii) an outline of future career ambitions with specific reference to the scholarship.

Deadline: The deadline for submission of the application to the Academic Director is Friday 31 October 2018.

Interview: Shortlisted candidates will be interviewed in UCC by a 30% Club UCC Executive MBA Scholarship assessment panel.

For more information: Contact mba@ucc.ie or 021-4902394