

Where: Boole 2 lecture theatre, UCC main campus

Dates: Wednesday, 30th May and Thursday 31st May, 2018

What time: 9.00am – 5.00pm

CPD hours applied for: LIA 4 hours per day approved

Cost:

1 Day Event €130, including lunch and tea/coffee. Special rate of €100 applies to UCC Credit Union Students and Graduates.

2 Day Event €200, including lunch and tea/coffee. Special rate of €160 applies to UCC Credit Union Students and Graduates.

Further information and/or booking:

Please Visit: www.ucc.ie/en/ace/cusummer

For further queries, please contact Adult Continuing Education 021 4904704/ace@ucc.ie

Information on parking and campus maps at <http://www.ucc.ie/en/visitors/>

Boole Lecture Theatre – Main Campus

UCC CREDIT UNION SUMMER SCHOOL

Wednesday 30th & Thursday 31st May, 2018

Continuing Professional Development for
Board of Directors, Board Oversight Committees
&
Credit Union Staff

University College Cork
Centre for Co-operative Studies

The Centre for Co-operative Studies is the only university based research centre on the Island of Ireland which focuses on research and education on all types of co-operatives, including credit unions.

Wednesday 30th May, 2018

Theme: Reinventing and Designing Credit Unions for the Future (Day 1)

Venue: Boole 2

9.00-9.10

Opening Address & Welcome

Dr Olive McCarthy, Senior Lecturer, Department of Food Business and Development, Deputy Director, Centre for Co-operative Studies.

Chair Dr. Oliver Moore, Centre for Co-operative Studies

9.10-9.50

"Emerging Trends in the Collaborative Economy: Models to Learn From"

Michel Bauwens, Founder of P2P Foundation and Leading Theorist on Collaborative Economy

10.00-10.40

"Online and Collaborative Economy: Opportunities for Credit Unions"

Conor Pope, Irish Times Columnist and Founder of Pricewatch

10.50-11.20

COFFEE BREAK

Chair: Dr. Carol Power, Centre for Co-operative Studies

11.20-12.10

"Co-operative Trends in the UK and Europe"

Ed Mayo, Vice-President of Co-operatives Europe and Secretary General of Co-ops UK

12.20-12.50

"Public Banking Proposal: Opportunities for Credit Unions"

Representatives from Public Banking Forum Ireland

13.00-14.30

LUNCH

14.30-16.30

Venue: Aula Maxima

Presentation and Interactive Group Session

"Innovations in Co-operative Leadership and Strategy"

Simon Parkinson, CEO and Principal, Co-operative College UK

Thursday, 31st May, 2018

Theme: Reinventing and Designing Credit Unions for the Future (Day 2)

Venue: Boole 2

9.00-9.10

Opening Address & Welcome

Professor Thia Hennessy, Dean, Cork University Business School, Director, Centre for Co-operative Studies, UCC

Chair: Noreen Byrne, Centre for Co-operative Studies

9.10-9.50

"Governance, Innovation and Local Knowledge"

June O'Connell, Solicitor specialising in Corporate Law

10.00-10.40

"Strategies for Business Model Development"

Brian Hayes, Partner, Moore Stephens Chartered Accountants

10.50-11.10

COFFEE BREAK

11.10-12.00

"Lessons from the Past, Challenges and Opportunities for the Future"

Brian Corr, Head of Credit Union Policy, Department of Finance

12.10-12.50

"Credit Unions, Financial Education and Digital Technology"

Professor Donal McKillop, Queens University Belfast

13.00-14.00

LUNCH

14.00-17.00

Theme: Future Opportunities for Credit Unions

Chair: Dr. Olive McCarthy, Centre for Co-operative Studies

14.00-14.30

Elaine Byrne, Deputy Registrar of Credit Unions, Central Bank of Ireland

14.30-15.00

Gerry Thompson, Vice President of ILCU

15.00-15.30

Kevin Johnson, CEO CUDA

15.30-16.30

Panel of speakers from the day

16.30 -16.45

Closing thoughts of the day

Dr. Olive McCarthy, Centre for Co-operative Studies, UCC